GREEN BOOK (12) (124 mins)

"Tony Lip", a tough Italian-American bouncer becomes chauffeur to Dr. Don Shirley, a sophisticated African-American pianist, for a concert tour in the racially charged Deep South. Despite their apparently polar opposite characters, true respect and enduring friendship develop between them. This "remarkable, funny and heart-warming" film of a true story won the Academy Award for best film.

2.30 p.m. TUESDAY January 28th

SOMETIMES ALWAYS NEVER (12) (91 mins)

Stylish tailor, Alan (Bill Nighy) has spent years searching for the eldest of his two sons who had stormed off over a game of Scrabble. This is a poignant but quietly amusing film about always being treated as second-best - "vegemite" instead of "marmite"! Mark Kermode loved this film.

7.30 p.m. SATURDAY 8th February

MAIDEN (12) (93 mins)

This is the inspirational true story of how Tracy Edwards, a 24-year-old cook on charter boats, became the skipper of the first ever all-female crew to enter the Whitbread Round the World Race in 1989 despite fierce opposition from a mainly male world. All the footage is real and remarkable. You may need some Stugeron!

2.30 p.m. TUESDAY February 25th

VICEROY'S HOUSE (12) (101 mins)

India 1947 and Lord Mountbatten (Hugh Bonneville), the last Viceroy of India, is dispatched, along with his wife Edwina (Gillian Anderson) to New Delhi to oversee the country's transition from British rule to independence in a climate of political, social and religious opposition. A fascinating look at history.

7.30 p.m. SATURDAY March 8th

EYE IN THE SKY (15) (98 mins)

The moral implications of modern warfare are confronted in this riveting and suspenseful film in which Helen Mirren plays the role of an army colonel co-ordinating a drone operation, from London, to capture a terrorist cell in Nairobi. One of the best reviewed films of 2015.

2.30 p.m. TUESDAY 24th March

DOWNTON ABBEY (12) (122 mins)

The film kicks off in 1927 shortly before a visit to Downton Abbey by King George V and Queen Mary. Sumptuous sets and meticulous period detail help to make this film a cosy, nostalgic and enjoyable experience for all.
