

Dalby Movies

Supported by :

Winter afternoons and evenings at St James schoolrooms. No need to book, just come and join us.

Refreshments provided, please bring your own wine/beer for the evening movies.

Thanks for your generosity : Donations to cover costs enable these films to happen. After costs all proceeds go to help support Church funds.

7.30 p.m. SATURDAY 14th October 2023

The Lost King (12) (1 hr 48mins)

In 2012, having been lost for over 500 years, the remains of King Richard III were discovered beneath a carpark in Leicester. The search had been orchestrated by an amateur historian, Philippa Langley, whose unrelenting research had been met with incomprehension by her friends and family and with scepticism by experts and academics. THE LOST KING is the life-affirming true story of a woman who refused to be ignored and who took on the country's most eminent historians, forcing them to think again about one of the most controversial kings in England's history.

2.30 p.m. TUESDAY 24th October

Save the Cinema (12) (2 hrs)

The true story of how small Welsh community in Camarthan banded together and enlisted the help of Hollywood filmmaker Steven Spielberg to save their listed art deco cinema (which also doubles as the home for the local youth theatre) from shifty developers who want to pull it down and build a mall. With a heart warming tone, this Welsh comedy-drama recounts a true story about a woman taking on a corrupt system.

7.30 p.m. SATURDAY 12th November

"Evelyn" (12) (1hr 30mins)

Based on true events, "Evelyn" tells the inspiring story of real life hero Desmond Doyle (Pierce Brosnan) and his young children. Abandoned by his wife Doyle does his best raising his kids alone in Ireland. When his wife's mother reports her daughter's abandonment to the authorities the power of the Church and the Irish courts take them away to an orphanage. This story tells how they challenge the law before the Irish Supreme Court and the uplifting testament to the strength of the Father's love and the power of the human Spirit.

2.30 p.m. TUESDAY 28th November

A Bunch of Amateurs (15) (1hr. 36mins)

Jefferson Steel (Burt Reynolds) is an aging Hollywood action hero. He's vain, insecure and out of work. In an attempt to find Jefferson work his incompetent agent stumbles upon the perfect role playing King Lear at Stratford on Avon..... but things don't work quite as he anticipated! A clash of cultures with comic complications ensues in the funny and ultimately moving comedy.

7.30 p.m. SATURDAY 9th December

Sleepless in Seattle (PG) (1hr. 45mins)

Annie Reed (Meg Ryan) a down to earth news-paper reporter is so touched by the heart-felt sentiment of Sam (Tom Hanks) speaking about his dead wife on the radio, that she is determined to meet him.... though that doesn't prove to be as easy seems as it seems. A charming Christmas feel good movie .

"I smiled the whole way through " Film critic Roger Ebert.