OPERATION MINCEMEAT (12) (120 mins)

Set in 1943, this film follows the story of two brilliant intelligence officers, Ewen Montagu (Colin Firth) and Charles Cholmondeley (Matthew Macfadyen) who conceived a plan to trick the Nazis into thinking that Allied forces were planning to invade Europe by way of Greece rather than Sicily. A fantastic story that happens to be true

2.30 p.m. TUESDAY 25th October

THE DUKE (12) (95mins)

"All Rise for the Duke" (The Guardian: ) In 1961, Kempton Bunton (Jim Broadbent), a 60 year old taxi driver, stole Goya's portrait of the Duke of Wellington from the National Gallery. He sent ransom notes saying he would return the painting on condition that the government invested more in care for the elderly. It took 50 years for the full, true story to emerge.

7.30 p.m. SATURDAY 12th November

THE RESCUE (12) (107 mins)

An unmissable second opportunity to see this stunning documentary which chronicles the dramatic rescue in 2018 of 12 Thai boys and their soccer coach trapped deep inside a flooded cave. Directors E. Chai Vasarhelyi and Jimmy Chin (Free Solo) reveal the perilous world of cave diving, the bravery of the rescuers and the dedication of the entire community involved in saving the boys' lives. The handful of us that saw this film last March were overwhelmed by it.

2.30 p.m. TUESDAY 22nd November

MARVELLOUS (15) (88 mins)

Tells the very funny and very moving true story of Neil Baldwin (the brilliant Toby Jones) who refused to accept the label of learning difficulties and carved out an extraordinary life as a circus clown, university welfare officer and kitman for Stoke City Football Club. Even if you've seen it before, you're in for a treat.

7.30 p.m. SATURDAY 10th December

PHANTOM OF THE OPEN (12) (100 mins)

A film with Mark Rylance and Sally Hawkins is bound to be good. This 'uproarious comedy' (the Telegraph) tells the remarkable story of Maurice Flitcroft, a crane operator from Barrow-in-Furness who managed to gain entry to the 1975 British Open despite never having played a round of golf before and despite the disapproval of the golfing elite
